New Director for NETCO Board

NETCO's Board of Directors recently elected a new Director nominated by the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW) First District Canada. Phil Venoit, RSE, has been the Business Manager of IBEW Local 230 since 2002. As an advocate for the skilled trades Mr. Venoit has served on various working groups and committees throughout his career, including;

- Director of the Western Joint Electrical Training Society
- Chair of the BC Industry Training Authority Maritime Sector Advisory Group (Only Labour Chair in BC)
- Working Group member on the Advanced Education Ministry Working Group (tasked to review Compulsory Certification for eight trades in BC)
- Serves on Board of Governors of Camosun College
- Serves on Board of Directors of the Pacific Institute of Sports Excellence

The board would like to thank outgoing Director Adam Van Steinburg, RSE, for his leadership and contribution to the success of NETCO and wish him much success in his new role as International Representative with the IBEW.

Welcome Tiffany Arthurs: NETCO Summer Student

Our summer student for 2019, Tiffany Arthurs, joined the NETCO team on June 17, 2019. Tiffany is a student at the New Brunswick Community College where she recently completed her first year in Business Administration (Accounting). Growing up in a construction family she is not a stranger to the skilled trades. She has volunteered with many organizations including the Cherry Brook Zoo, Uptown Saint John Outflow, Salvation Army and the Young Women's Hockey Camp. An avid athlete Tiffany played Midget AAA hockey while in high school and is currently playing for the University of New Brunswick Saint John Sea Wolves. In addition to sports she enjoys many hobbies including horse back riding, snowmobiling, dirt-biking, skiing and boating. Tiffany graduated from St. Malachy's Memorial High School in 2017 with Honours as a bilingual student.
