

JEAN-MARC RINGUETTE, RSE

NETCO DIRECTOR

Jean-Marc Ringuette, RSE, is the Business Manager of Local 502 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers in Saint John, NB. He is also the President of the New Brunswick Building Trades Unions. He also served as the Training Director for the Union. Previous to his current role Jean-Marc was involved in post-secondary education and was an instructor at the New Brunswick Community College where he also served as the President and Director for the instructional component in the New Brunswick Union of Public and Private Employees.

He also sits on the Board of Directors for the National Electrical Trade Council (NETCO) and is the chair of the Educational committee. He is currently the President of the Board of Directors for MAP Strategic Services and is/was involved in various other boards and committees in the region.

Jean-Marc considers himself a lifelong learner with a desire to continually improve himself both personally and professionally and believes in passing his acquired knowledge to help others do the same. He is very cognizant of the positive impacts his mentors had on his personal success and believes it is his obligation to do the same for the future generation.