

PHIL VENOIT, RSE

NETCO DIRECTOR

Phil Venoit, RSE is the Business Manager of IBEW Local 230 on Vancouver Island. His relationship with Local 230 spans almost 40 years. He joined Local 230 in 1981 where he went on to become the Assistant Business Manager from 1996 to 2001 and became the Business Manager / Financial Secretary in 2002. Phil is a Construction Electrician with Red Seal Endorsement. He is a distinguished Alumni recipient from Camosun College which is the second largest trades college in British Columbia.

He has served on various working groups and committees throughout his career as an advocate for the skilled trades including:

- Director of the Western Joint Electrical Training Society
- Chair of the BC Industry Training Authority Maritime Sector Advisory Group
- Serves on Board of Governors of Camosun College
- Serves on Board of Directors of the Pacific Institute of Sports Excellence

Phil resides in Victoria, British Columbia.